2. GENERAL INFORMATION

2.1 Background of Scheme

In the recent times, demand for quality in healthcare services has risen due to various market forces such as medical tourism, insurance, corporate growth and competition. As a result of these the expectations of the consumer for best in quality has also risen, which has indeed lead to the introduction of national and international accreditation bodies to act as a quality assurance mechanism, thus enhancing customers access to better healthcare services. National Accreditation Board for Hospitals and Healthcare Providers (NABH) defines Hospital Accreditation as a public recognition by a national or international healthcare accreditation body, of the achievement of accreditation standards by a healthcare organization, demonstrated through an independent external peer assessment of that organizations level of performance in relation to the standards.

A number of consultants are helping various Hospitals and Healthcare (HAH) sector for achieving NABH Standard of accreditation. The selection of a capable Consultant by an organization is important in ensuring that their management system is capable of meeting the planned objectives of the organization in the most efficient and cost effective manner.

Hospitals may cater to multi-disciplinary activities where inputs are required from specialists in different areas. Therefore besides capable consultants, a consultant organization would require to have a capable Coordinator or Team Leader who would lead the team of various consultants and/or experts to provide a comprehensive guidance to the HAH and develop an effective system as per NABH guidelines

2.2 An Outline of the Scheme

In view of the above it is therefore proposed to develop a credible Accreditation Scheme specifying the requirements for the accreditation of Hospital & HealthCare Consultant Organization (HAH-CO) like suitable infrastructure, qualified & competent human resource, Hospital & Health care expert, system oriented working system, sustainable and ethical working.

This scheme is be developed by NABET in consultation with NABH, consultant organizations, Hospital & healthcare institutes, HAH experts, regulators and other stakeholders. Independent and transparent accreditation scheme is operated by NABET

This comprehensive document describes the scheme's requirements of human resources, consultancy quality assurance systems and procedures to be followed, the assessment process and the accreditation criteria. Various aspects of the scheme will be –

- a) Eligibility (who can get accreditation) and coverage of the Scheme
- b) Hospital & Health Care Experts – qualification, experience and competence requirement
- c) Consultancy quality assurance system
- d) Assessment, Accreditation process

- e) Compliance to the conditions of accreditation
- f) Closure/suspension/delisting/on hold etc. of applications
- g) Code of conduct, confidentiality
- h) Fee Structure

Scheme is dynamic in nature. Modifications and updation will take place from time to time, as it ought to be for continually improving the delivery and effectiveness of the consultancy.
